

B.C. Floods 2018

Support for Small Business and Not-for-Profit Organizations

Who can apply?

Small businesses (including sole proprietors, partnerships and franchises) and not-for-profit organizations affected by spring flooding in the Regional District of Kootenay Boundary (RDKB).

Applicants must

- ▶ Have 50 employees or less*
- ▶ Be located in the RDKB
- ▶ Have been in operation on or before April 26, 2018
- ▶ Be financially vulnerable as a result of spring flooding in the RDKB
- ▶ Have resumed or are intending to resume operations
- ▶ Have a net income of less than $250,00 (calculated as revenue less expenses)*
- ▶ Have the business be their primary source of income*

 Does not apply to not-for-profit organizations.*

How the Red Cross helps

The Canadian Red Cross is providing additional financial assistance to eligible small businesses and not-for-profit organizations impacted by spring flooding in the RDKB thanks to funding from the Government of B.C.

Application deadline

March 1, 2019

For more information and to apply

For more information, or to download an application, visit www.redcross.ca/bcfloods/smallbusiness

Questions?

Contact BCSmallBizSupport@redcross.ca